Listening Together survey questions

At the conclusion of part two, answer the following question:
What should covenant look like (or not look like) in the RCA?

At the conclusion of part three, answer the following question:
When is it okay for a covenant community to divide? When is it better to try to stay together?

At the conclusion of part four, answer the following question:
Knowing what’s at stake, is there a next step that you might be willing to take toward reconciliation and restoration? If so, what is that step?
At the conclusion of our time together, answer the following questions:

1. As you took part in this discussion, how did you feel? Circle up to four answers.

   Afraid       Inspired       Sad
   Alive        Embarrassed    Tired
   Angry        Encouraged     Threatened
   Anxious      Engaged        Troubled
   Appreciative   Excited     Understood
   Challenged   Grateful       Unheard
   Confident    Heard          Unsafe
   Confused     Hopeful        Valued
   Determined   Optimistic     Vulnerable
   Disconnected Pained         Yearning
   Disgusted    Ready

2. What surprised you about this discussion?

3. What would you celebrate about your experience in this discussion?
4. What do you wish had gone differently?

5. What new questions do you have (if any)?