

Mission Volunteer Program

Global Teaching Opportunities

NIGER

Teacher needed– Elementary “homeschool” teacher needed. One year term (10 months) starting in August of 2010. Remote village located in Maradi, Niger. A great opportunity and way to serve in mission. Couples encouraged to apply.

BAHRAIN

Teachers needed. Two year commitment serving at Al Raja K-12 school in Manama, Bahrain. Education majors needed in English and other subject areas as well. This is a great opportunity to teach in a school for Bahraini kids. Furnished apartment provided, car available for use, stipend, and health insurance. Terms begin in August of each year.

JAPAN

Teachers of Conversational English. Paid opportunity. Teaching, youth ministry, evangelism, and working with local churches will give you great experience in a place where it is less than 2% Christian. The Kyodan, the RCA’s partner in Japan, invites teachers to work with students in historically Christian schools. Two year term beginning in August of each year.

HONDURAS

Teacher needed in Ahuas. Special education/reading/elementary “home school” teacher needed for missionary family. One year term (10 months) starting in August of 2010. Remote village located in La Mosquitia, Honduras. A great opportunity and way to serve in mission. Semester options available also.

Most placements require fundraising to cover daily needs, transport, insurance and orientation. Please apply through the Reformed Church in America Mission Volunteer Program. Call 1-800-968-3943 or email volunteer@rca.org to request an application.

REFORMED CHURCH IN AMERICA
FOLLOWING CHRIST IN MISSION
RCA●ORG

Transforming Lives

Sharing Gifts

Crossing Cultures